HERVEY AND WHITNEY NEGLECTED DUTY, HE SAYS

Minority Leader Wagner Attacks the Public Service Commissioners in Senate.

ALBANY, Jan. 11.—Public Service Commissioners Charles S. Hervey and Travis H. Whitney of the First District, were attacked by Minority Leader Robert F. Wagner in the Senate to-day for alleged neglect of their official duties in order to perform political service.

Senator Wagner did not mention either commissioner by name, but referred to one who had helped in the preparation of the Governor's tentative budget and to another who had been active in the management of Charles E. Hughes's Presidential campaign. Commissioner Hervey assisted in preparing Governor Whit-man's budget and Commissioner Whitney was connected with the headquarters of the Hughes Alliance.
Senator Wagner charged that the Commissioner who assisted in preparing the Governor's tentative budget made an error involving $3,500,000.
Senator Henry M. Page thereupon assured the Senate that it need not worry about the $3,500,000 error. "Both the Finance Committee and the Controller are cognizant of it," he said.

"RUBBERNECK" JUST A PLAIN PUBLIC HACK, SAYS COURT

Under Rule of License Commissioner if It Solicits Passengers On Streets.

Judge Rosalsky to-day sustained the validity of the city ordinance placing the regulation of sight-seeing motor cars within the province of the Commissioner of Licenses. The opinion was rendered in the case of six drivers of sight-seeing cars charged with violation of the ordinance and fined by a City Magistrate.
The matter came up on appeal.

It was contended that sight-seeing cars could not be classed as public hacks and were therefore not amenable to ordinances requiring them to start from a public hack stand designated by the Commissioner of Licenses.
All the men had been arrested for soliciting trade in front of the various offices of the companies they worked for. In his decision Judge Rosalsky says:

"If a sight-seeing car solicits public passengers on the street then it comes under the regulations of the public hack ordinance, and the owner or operator thereof must comply with the provisions."

ARRESTED IN JURY BOX.

Rosendorf Taken From Supreme Court Trial on Relative's Charge.

Samuel Rosendorf, forty-five, a wholesale hosiery dealer of No. 270 Putnam Avenue, Brooklyn, was arrested this afternoon while serving as a juror before Justice Shearn in the Supreme Court. The Judge excused him and the detective led him away to answer in the Washington Heights Magistrate's Court.

Eugene Rosendorf, the juror's sister-in-law, made oath that on July 10 last he called on her at the Hotel Bellevue and borrowed $300 worth of jewelry, besides a pawn ticket for $250 on more jewelry. He promised to return the property Sept. 1. After that date she could not find him.
Rosendorf told the detective that he was prevented by business difficulties from making restitution.

WILSON'S ARBITRATION BILL IS OPPOSED BY GOMPER

Organized Labor "Unanimously Against Involuntary Servitude," He Tells Congress.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Organized labor, President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor told the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee to-day, is "unanimously against involuntary servitude, whether it is permanent or temporary."

He opposed the arbitration law recommended by President Wilson to supplement the Adamson Law, because it interferes with the right of an employee to strike and thus, he contends, results in involuntary servitude by forbidding a strike pending investigation of a controversy between railroad employees and employers.

The Federation, he said, was not affiliated with the brotherhoods but has "a common policy and interest with them."

ADMIRAL SIGSBEE BETTER.

Doctor Says He Is Helpless Now, but Improving.

Sigsbee of the Maine—who has been ill for three weeks at No. 530 West One Hundred and Twelfth Street, is getting better. Dr. D. S. D. Jeausp of No. 601 West One Hundred and Thirteenth Street is attending him. Those who called to ask for him this morning were told that his illness is intercostal and intermuscular neuralgia, which has kept him in bed for a week following a two weeks' attack of bronchial cold. He has a trained nurse and the doctor calls every day.
"He has had acute pains for a week, all movement being impossible without help," says to-day's bulletin. "He has no paralysis. He says he needs a job for light exercise and current pristine literature for heavy exercise."

PIECED WILL GIVES HER $5,000 SHE DOESN'T WANT

Miss Grannis Tells of Tearing Up Testament of Curator Morton, a Suicide.

Through the piecing together of a will she had torn up Miss Ruth Grannis, a writer, of No. 53 Washington Square, probably will be compelled to accept an estate she does not want. The situation arose in the Surrogate's Court to-day when the bits of paper were offered as the will of Joseph L. Morton, former curator of the Groller Club, who committed suicide July 25 last.

On July 18, Miss Grannis declares, Morton called at her home and handed her his will, under which she was to receive his property, amounting to about $5,000.
"I told him," Miss Grannis says in an affidavit, "I did not want him to make such a will. I then tore it up.
Morton picked up the pieces and put them in his pocket. He said he wanted to commit suicide. I told him that he should not do that, and that under no conditions would I accept his property."
